FINANCE AND TRADE.

IN FINANCIAL MATTERS there was the usual inactivity. Exchange remained at a low state of supply, with currency shipping daily; rates nuchanged at par buying on Boston and New York, selling at 1 premium; buying on New Orleans at 1 discounting on New Orlea mained at a low state of supply, with using demand for money. A city we presume one of the prescribed bond, we presume one of the July kind, was taken at 35; if had the July kind, was taken at 35; if his notice resupen. What the mayor in his notice nplies as 'litegally issued, is known in ne street as "tainted" bonds; it is well remember the distinction.

THE COTTON NARKET yesterda

THE COTTON MARKET yesterds wery qu'est; there were but few b looking for lots and some of them failed to find w hat they wanted, as the offerings were not liberal. There was more firmness a mong holden, who are inclined to view the most recent crop clined to view the most recent crop news as unfavorable. The telegrams mention no changes, either of price or tone of market. Among the cotton sold in our market was stained at 121@124c. ow ordinary at Sie, low midding at his life, strict low middling at Ide. lew York telegrams closed dull at I7e; New Orleans was quiet and uschanged at 16je; Liverpool was firm and un-changed at 8@8[d; Savannah quoted 16c; Mobile, 16c; Charleston, 15]c; Galceston, 16 c. COTTON STATEMENT.

Total shapements _____empet alt_fol STapeo The New York Bulletin, July 27th, reported: "A firmer stand was taken by hot lers on the spot to day, but prices were not higher officially, and business was as dull as ever. The small quantity which the daily receipts at the ports has dwindled, an advance in 'futures' sere, and a disposition in some quarters to regard the adverse reports from secare a few of the influences accounting for this course of holders here. The ab-sence of demand had a more or less neu-tralizing effect, however. For future delivery there was a moderate business at no advance of 2-16@3-32c. 'Shorts' are said to be 'covering' to a moderate extent, but this was not the case in a measure sufficient to cause anything like measure sufficient to cause anything like a "farry." The New York Chronicle, July 25th, had the following: "The market the past week has been dull it rection on the spot, and on Toesday quotations were reduced to 15th for low middling uplands. On Saturday aftermoon 750 bales were sold for export, and on Wednesday 250 bales, but beyond his the business has been almost windly for consumption, and unimportant is extent. Exparts from all other points very small, and notwithstanding the insignificant quantity rerefred at the ports no adequate reduction or effected in stocks on hand. It seems probable that the crop of 1874-5 will not be very much jater than that of 1873.4, por is it likely to encounter the obstacles arising from a financial panic to its be-ing speedily marketed. Hence there is ation to carry any considers-ble quantity of the present crop over with the next, and yet, with this market thove the gravity of Liverpool, to effect mes has been a difficult matter. To day site market was dull and heavy under queter accounts from Liverpool, and a postradiction of the reports of caterpil-lars in Alabama. For future delivery he market has been quite variable, the arly months showing weakness and the months advancing. Monday spened with a very buoyant tone, on ad-States, and more or less in jury from caternellars at many points. The rains in southern Texas, and in some parts of Alabams and the Atlantic coast, have been sufficiently prolonged to give the grass a great start, and cause some injury in other ways, and the fear of more; but there has been some relief to the drought at fan-market closed without any fixed pulse.

Memphiles and decomposition, daily except Senday, at 2:00 am, each state of the sale of 300 bbcs, at 2:00 am, each state of 300 bbcs, thought to be a legitimate reason for advancing prices in the alleged fact that the world's consumption was sufgrowing the world's projection. We are not prepared to refore the proposition at present, but hope to be able to express an opinion upon the subject very soon. In the meantime, however, it is easy to see that, whether true or not, this idea has been industriance and by amounts. Mail and Freight, at a am.

Mail sever the present state of atoes and Civeriand, Columbus a coffee-producing countries will show. The stock of coffee in the prespective crops of the leading coffee-producing countries will show. The stock of coffee in the principal European entropes on the thirty-first of May was 100,838 tons, against 66 810 tons in 1873, 94; Union Pacific, 1 was 100,838 tons, against 66 810 tons in 1873. On the first of July there was 88 600 tons as contrasted with 74,400 tons in 1871, 106,000 tons in 1872, 106,00 tons in 1872, 95,000 tons in 1871, 106,000 tons in 1870, and 98,600 tons in 1869. An examination of the Dutch trading com pany's prices, however, in the last three years mentioned and a comparison with years mentioned and a comparison with the present prices, will show that there is not now a proper relation of prices as compared with stocks. In 1809 the price was 28 in (Dutch currency); in 1870, 22 in 1871, 24 23 c. Compara-tively, then, the present price should be about 40c instead of 60c. as were the quotathes at the Dutch sale on the market a day or two ago for 17 are now jest year. On the 1st July we held 150, commonly held at 18. Gold was taken 473 bags Rio coffee, against 97,596 in by the brokers at 10s. There is a daily 1863, while there are 35,352 bags afford and 10,300 cogs loading, making our total visible supply 190,025 bags. Our total receipts for the sleven months end-against 85,860 tone in 1872, from Santis 35,700 tone, against 25,000 in 1873; or, both together, 108,100 tone this year, against 112,900 tone in 1873—not a very great falling off in receipts, while our stocks are much larger. How is it in prices here? On July 21, 1873, prime Rio coffee was seiling at 184c; on July 21, 1874, and the coffee was seiling at 184c; on July 21, 1874, and 21, an 21, 1874, the same grade is selling a 2110-just i wo cents higher, with large stocks, and practically no decrease in receipts. What 's the reason? Specu-lation, and nothing else. Is there anything in the prospective crops to war-rant such prices? The latest estimate of the new Rio crop is placed at three and a half militims of bags. The incoming Ceylon crop, it is true, is a small one, but that was known and made use of months ago, while the prospective crop bids fair to exceed any of late years. We argue, therefore, from shese acts that coffee is now higher than it ought to be, and that while speculators may be strong enough to hold it where t is unsafe in the retail trade masives with stock. This was the advice we gave the trade in our issue of June 27th, since when coff-c has declined from one to two cents per pound. We are aware that holders of coffee here and essewhere will advise differently, and we ourselves will regret to have legiti-nate holders suffer by by a further de-cline, but we know, too, that our friends, the retailers, have light stocks, and that the holders will try to load them up quietly for their fall trade. It will be safe, in our opinion, to buy from hand to mouth, and if less is made, the risk of greater loss is avoided."
